OUR STORY

- Governed by the Broward County Board of County Commissioners
- Nearly 100 years old, Port Everglades welcomed its first commercial ship in 1928 after the "wedding of the waters" ceremony on February 22, 1928.
- Located in the center of the 8th largest metropolitan area in the U.S. with approximately 87 million combined seasonal and permanent consumers within a one-day drive.
- Port Everglades' Foreign-Trade Zone (FTZ No. 25) includes all of Broward County.
- Art-In-Public-Places is a core feature throughout the port, with installations like the mural on the Harbormaster tower and "Cruising School" in Cruise Terminal 18.

MISSION STATEMENT

Port Everglades works creatively and competitively to expand the revenue positions of our trade, cruise and energy customers, which in turn creates economic, social and environmental value for our community.
